Valley Law Firm Grows Key Practice Areas

June 3, 2010, Bakersfield, Calif. – The law firm of Klein, DeNatale, Goldner, Cooper, Rosenlieb & Kimball, LLP has announced the growth of its litigation and transactional practices with the addition of Bonnie J. Anderson as a partner in the firm’s Fresno office and Sarah Kim as an associate attorney in the firm’s Bakersfield office.

An attorney since 1997, Anderson most recently owned her own firm and practiced in a variety of areas, including general civil and business litigation, business transactions, construction, real estate and estate planning. She has also practiced at the firms of Coleman & Horowitz, LLP in Fresno; Geiger, Rudquist, Nuss, Coon & Keen, LLP in Stockton; and Crabtree Schmidt in Modesto, as well as the Tulare County District Attorney’s Office in Visalia.

Anderson earned her Juris Doctor from San Joaquin College of Law in 1997. She is an active member of the Fresno County Bar Association, the Association of Business Trial Lawyers, Stanislaus County and Federal Bar Associations; State Bar of California; Fresno County Women Lawyers; and the Central California Bankruptcy Association. Her practice at KDG will focus on general civil and business litigation.

The newest member of KDG's transactional practice group, Sarah Kim comes to Bakersfield from the San Francisco law firm of DLA Piper, LLP with experience in corporate and securities law. Prior to earning her J.D. in 2008 from University of California, Hastings College of Law, she served as a senior research associate at Fidelity Investments, analyzing and reviewing securities for investment considerations. She holds a bachelor of science in management degree from MIT's Sloan School of Management. Fluent in Korean, Kim was the treasurer of the Asian/Pacific American Law Students Association at Hastings.

Klein, DeNatale, Goldner, Cooper, Rosenlieb & Kimball, LLP has served clients in the San Joaquin Valley for more than 55 years. With more than 50 highly skilled and experienced attorneys, KDG is a full-service law firm, providing aggressive, results-oriented legal representation. With offices in Bakersfield, Fresno, and San Diego, Calif., the firm offers a wide range of practice areas with the highest integrity to a diverse client base.
