The Court of Appeal recently affirmed the trial court's dismissal of a claim against the plaintiff's employer for malicious prosecution and other torts arising from the employer's having fired the employee and reported him to the sheriff when the employer uncovered evidence of an extortion scheme in which the employee was apparently involved. The appeal was led by Catherine E. Bennett, leader of KDG's Appellate Department. Hall v. Rain for Rent, affirmed, unpublished opinion, 2010 WL 446486.

The Court of Appeal recently affirmed the trial court's order that a trust beneficiary had contested his parents' trust by asking for an accounting and an order reclassifying a gift to his brother as trustee fees, and thus could not take anything under the trust because of a no-contest clause. The appeal was led by KDG attorneys Catherine E. Bennett and Joseph D. Hughes. In re Prince Trust, affirmed, unpublished opinion, 2010 WL 3405729.
